NOT A LOSING FIGHT.

We received a letter from a good woman a few days ago and one sentence in particular impressed us very strongly. It was this: "I know you are fighting the whiskey and other bad things in Crossville, but I fear it is a losing fight."

That woman was sick at heart and discouraged when she wrote that sentence. More, she is not fully aware how much has been accomplished by the good people of Crossville who oppose whiskey and every form of lawlessness. If she was fully informed she would be greatly cheered and encouraged over the results and urge on the good fight.

The fight against whiskey and attendant evils is just like the fight against any other evil, with this difference: There is a chance to accomplish more, and more is being accomplished, right here in Crossville, to suppress and stop the use of intoxicants and by that means keep down its attendant evils, than is being done in any other line of wrong conduct.

We are having better order now, thanks to the vigilance of our marshal and a city board that supports him heartily, than ever before. Our people are realizing the situation as never before and the number on the side of good behaviour is growing daily.

Men who used to have the stuff come by the gallon and quart never or rarely ever get it or drink it. Nor is that all, they are strongly opposed to it and growing stronger all the time.

The law and order people of Crossville are accomplishing much and it is not a "losing fight."

It is a winning fight and we are in it to the end.

One of the most astonishing things in connection with this loud cry of preparedness is that the people will allow the big city papers, which are strongly charged—and not denied by them—with pushing the idea from a mercenary point. Why don't the people think some and then speak out? If they would do that congress would very soon modify its big war plans to a sensible point, and there might then be some hope of getting the good roads idea expanded to the point where the people would derive some real benefits.

The big munitions and ship building plants are reaching for the national treasury with both hands and unless some definite steps are taken by the people, the treasury will be looted and the country very likely plunged into war.

There is one cheerful note touching the war: The feeling is almost general that it will come to a close within a year.

Two things stand out with vivid distinctness: Germany cannot conquer Europe and the allies cannot crush Germany. That makes it clear that the final adjustment will be a give and take settlement. Such an outcome will be best for Europe and the world.

The fact still remains, however, and is pretty generally recognized, that permanent peace cannot come so long as one nation rules the sea, any more than it could come with one nation ruling Europe. With England's commanding power over the seas it simply means a period of recuperation for another war unless some adjustment comes whereby the seas shall be free to all nations alike.

The British Government has prohib-

SEVERE PUNISHMENT

Of Mrs. Chappell, of Five Years' Standing, Relieved by Cardui.

Mt. Airy, N. C.—Mrs. Sarah M. Chappell of this town, says: "I suffered for five years with womanly troubles, also stomach troubles, and my punishment was more than any one could tell."

I tried most every kind of medicine, but none did me any good.

I read one day about Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I decided to try it. I had not taken but about six bottles until I was almost cured. It did me more good than all the other medicines I had tried, put together.

My friends began asking me why I looked so well, and I told them about Cardui. Several are now taking it."

Do you, lady reader, suffer from any of the ailments due to womanly trouble, such as headache, backache, sideache, sleeplessness, and that everlasting tired feeling?

If so, let us urge you to give Cardui a trial. We feel confident it will help you, just as it has a million other women in the past half century.

Begin taking Cardui to-day. You won't regret it. All druggists.

ited the export of logwood from Jamaica to the United States, which is said to be the severest blow to the dye industry in this country since the supply of aniline dyes from Germany was cut off. If, as Congressman Mann says, our foreign policy is dictated in London, how can we retaliate?

The holiday recess of congress came to a close yesterday and the grind of legislative business was resumed.

You've hit the right tobacco

when you fire-up some Prince Albert in your old jimmy pipe or in a makin's cigarette. And you know it! Can't get in wrong with P. A. for it is made right; made to spread-smoke-sunshine among men who have suffered with scorched tongues and parched throats! The patented process fixes that—and cuts out bite and parch. All day long you'll sing how glad you are you're pals with

PRINCE ALBERT

You take this testimony straight from the shoulder, men. You can smoke a barrel of P. A. without a kick! It hands out all the tobacco happiness any man ever dreamed about, it's so smooth and friendly. It's a mighty cheerful thing to be on talking-terms with your pipe and your tongue at the same time—but that's what's coming to you sure as you pin your faith to Prince Albert!
